We have made a sincere effort to include the most frequently used and most important numbers to agencies in this Head Start/Early Head Start Community

Resource Directory. This directory is designed to help you find agencies and programs in your area quickly and easily. Please be aware that some agencies or programs may change services, phone numbers, location, etc. You can make changes in your directory as necessary Page 137. You may want to keep this directory next to your telephone for times of need and/or emergency.

2. At the end of the directory there is an appendix:

-Appendix A is a list of the area schools.

3. Search the Alphabetical Index on pages 143-148 for the agency name or specific program name.

4. Tips for contacting a resource, program or agency:

- Choose a time that is best for you to call when you will not be interrupted by television, music, children, etc.
- Have all documents ready, such as; social security number(s), driver's license, medical card(s), insurance card, bills, letters, notices, income statements, etc.
- Have pen and paper ready.
- Write down the name of the person you are speaking with, the date and the time of day. This will help you with any follow-up that may be needed.
- Before you end your conversation, repeat back or clarify what you heard from the contact person.
- Say thank you to the person you spoke with-you will depend on them for their help and follow through and you may need to contact them again.
- NOTE: See page 151 (English) or page 152 (Spanish) for steps in contacting Walworth or Rock County Job Center Caseworkers
